REPORTING EXEMPTION FRAUD

Florida laws provide for a number of exemptions from property taxes. When a property owner receives a Homestead exemption for which they are no longer entitled, it is deemed to be non-compliant and abuse of the law.

This office is committed to regulating these exemptions, however some can be missed. If you know of a property in Citrus County that is currently receiving an exemption, which you believe it should not be receiving, we urge you to report this information to our office.

You can call us on our fraud hotline at (352) 341-8800, or simply print this form, fill it out and drop it off or send it to 210 N Apopka Ave. Suite 200, Inverness, FL 34450. If you choose you may remain anonymous by completing this form and sending it to us by US Mail with no return address listed.

NOTICE! Florida Statute 668.6076 "Under Florida law, email addresses are public records. If you do not want your e-mail address released in response to a public records request, do not send electronic mail to this entity." In the absence of a specific legislative exemption, investigative records made or received by public agencies are open to public inspection pursuant to F.S. 119. Unless legally protected, all information received by this office is public record.
